Tata Coffee bags 'Best Indian Coffee' recognition at 4th Ernesto Illy International Coffee Awards

National, October 22, 2019: - Tata Coffee Ltd., one of the largest integrated coffee plantation companies in the world, was recognized at the 4th Ernesto Illy awards for best Indian coffee for the season 2018 – 19.

IllyCaffé - a global leader in high-quality, sustainably grown coffee celebrated its work with farmers globally, through the annual 'Ernesto Illy International Coffee Awards', in an award ceremony held in New York City. Tata Coffee's Sunticoppa estate in Coorg was recognized as the best Indian coffee and was amongst the finalists for global recognition.

Over 12 months, best coffees from nine important coffee producing countries namely Brazil, Colombia, Costa Rica, Nicaragua, Ethiopia, Guatemala, Honduras, India and Rwanda were identified by Illy Café's quality team and from them, 3 finalists per country were identified.

"We're honored to be recognized on this prestigious global platform and thrilled to receive this award in the category 'Best Indian coffees for the season 2018-19.'. The Ernesto Illy International Coffee Award celebrates true excellence in producing the highest quality coffee through sustainable means. We believe Indian coffee has many unique attributes and receiving this award is a fitting testimony of Tata Coffee's commitment to quality and sustainability." Mr. Chacko Thomas, MD & CEO, Tata Coffee Ltd. on representing TATA Coffee at the ceremony.
